Venom 6.2

Take all of the outstanding innovations from other successful Seafarer models and then add a slew of features and updates and you have yourself the Venom. It has a huge 6.2 x 2.4m hull, plenty of storage options, outstanding style and performance – there really is no equal for a boat this size. The Venom is the first of the extended pod models to offer a twin engine well. A standard underfloor tank of 240L gives the boat enormous range with an optional upgrade to 350L also available.
